

Terri E. Hilliard Olson, Esq.
Estate Planning and Mediation

Terri Hilliard Olson draws upon her vast experience and easy communication style in helping clients identify their concerns and risks and through planning reduce or eliminate them. She currently focuses upon advanced estate and business succession planning, asset protection, special needs trust, family protection planning, and general business formation and facilitation. She is also a private mediator for the community and specializes in helping families, elders, individuals and businesses resolve disputes.

Ms. Olson began her law career in 1989 after her successful business practice as an Investment Advisor practicing financial advising and management of assets for families and successful entertainment clients. She has extensive business, insurance and civil litigation experience in highly contested matters throughout the Southern California area. Ms. Olson moved to the Conejo Valley and returned to her advisory role for clients representing them in estate law and business matters. She also founded her Mediation and Dispute Resolution practice, Hilliard Mediation Services.

Ms. Olson graduated from Loyola Law School in 1989 where she was a contributing author of the Loyola Entertainment Law Journal. As a mediator, she trained at The Straus Institute, Pepperdine School of Law and Loyola Law School. Ms. Olson is a court approved Mediator and is on the Los Angeles Court civil and probate panels.

Ms. Olson is an admitted member of all California State and Federal Courts, the California State Bar, Southern California Mediation Association, Eldercare Mediators, the Ventura County Bar Association, Estates section and Wealth Counsel. She is also active in civic events throughout the Conejo Valley, a Sustaining Member of the Junior League of Pasadena, Westlake Thousand Oaks Chamber of Commerce and the American Business Women's Association.

Most recently, Ms. Olson is co-founder, president of The Senior & Family Resource Group of the Conejo, a non-profit organization devoted to educating the community and helping the needs of senior citizens and families in transition.
